MR. PATTERSON'S BILL

Reorganizing the Boards of Elections Is Made a Special Order.

REGISTRATION OF UNION LABELS.

In Honor of the Passage of the McKinnon Flag Bill, Hundreds of the State Emblems Are Distributed.

Columbus, O., May 7.—A motion by Senator Royer to indefinitely postpone Senator Patterson's board of elections bill was voted down in the senate and the bill was made a special order for Thursday. Senator Warner of Cleveland was the only Democratic member to vote with the Republicans against the indefinite postponement of the bill. It now looks as though the bill will be made a party measure and passed through both branches. The bill is a ripper in its nature, and it abolishes the present board of elections in the five leading cities of the state and provides for the appointment of new boards, the members of which are to be recommended to the mayors by the party committees.

The senate made a law of Mr. Willis' house bill providing for the registration of union labels, and providing heavy penalties and the prosecution of any one who uses registered labels wrongfully.

Another house bill made a law was that by Mr. York appropriating $15,000 to be used by the state board of agriculture in an effort to prevent the introduction and spread of the San Jose scale and other dangerous insects and dangerously contagious diseases affecting trees. This work formerly devolved upon the experimental station at Wooster, but now it is transferred to state agricultural board.

Under the Beal bill which was made a law by the concurrence of the senate in its passage, registered pharmacists must pass an examination in chemistry, botany, materia medica, toxicology and the theory and practice of pharmacy.

A house bill by Mr. Dunlap gives probate courts the authority to set aside a will which may have been probated, and substitute one hearing a later date.

Under a bill by Mr. York, fishermen on Lake Erie whose nets were destroyed under the provisions of an act held to be unconstitutional, are given authority to sue the state, and those who paid their license fee under the provisions of that act, are also given the right to recover.

In the senate the first appropriations bill was reported back from the finance committee and passed without a dissenting vote. There were numerous amendments to the bill, however, so that it bears a very disabled resemblance to the measure which caused so much worry and flurry in the house about 10 days ago. Eight hundred thousand dollars was stricken from the bill and $100,000 added to it, leaving the bill more than $500,000 shorter than when originally introduced. The Josiah Allen farm proposition received very rough treatment.

Cleveland and Longview hospitals profit by the generosity of the senate, Cleveland coming in for the largest portion. Additional appropriations are made for this institution for a new hospital and furnishings to cost $35,000. They also get $2,000 for a new greenhouse, $4,000 for a new barn and $2,000 for the purpose of extending a water main. Massillon state hospital drew a prize of $1,600 for a heating apparatus, but the institution is to get $25,000 instead of $50,000 for the construction of one instead of two new cottages. The hospital for epileptics at Gallipolis gets $40,000 for a new stone cottage and additional appropriations for other improvements.

In the House.

The Painter bill seems to be dying of strangulation. It is expected now that the bill will be allowed to pass peacefully away.

Resolutions were adopted, each by rising vote, upon the death of two ex-members. The first resolution was offered by Mr. Nihart of Williams county upon the death of Hon. William Hart, formerly a member of the house from Williams county. The other was introduced by Mr. Dunham of Ouyahoga county in memory of Hon. Harvey W. Curtis, member of the 69th and 70th general assemblies.

In the honor of the passage of the McKinnon flag bill, adopting a state flag, the speaker had several hundred miniature flags which were distributed among the members of the house and the reporters and legislative correspondents.

Cleveland and Cincinnati buried the hatchet, locked arms and shouldered the whole house for a while during the morning on the Miesel bill to help out the schools in these cities for the deaf and dumb. The state is to pay these institutions $42,200 in Cincinnati and $63,000 in Cleveland. After a long debate the bill was passed.

The house cleared the calendar of a large number of general bills, but none of great importance were taken up. Among those passed were these: To allow county commissioners each $200 per year for expenses; appropriating about $6,000 to reimburse the Cleveland naval brigade for expenses in bringing the United States ship Hawk from Norfolk to Cleveland; to appropriate $3,000 for the maintenance of the Hawk and to pay the naval brigades each at Toledo and Cleveland $1,000.

AUTOMOBILES UNDERGROUND.

Mayor of Greater New York Will Inspect Big Sewer.

New York, May 7.—The mayor of Greater New York will on May 17 make the first underground trip in an automobile that has ever been made by an official of the city. He is scheduled to go at the head of a procession of seven automobiles, the passengers in which will be members of the board of estimate and department of Brooklyn through the large 15-foot sewer that is now being built to drain the entire Bayridge section of Brooklyn. The officials will have the novel experience of traveling for a mile or more through a subterranean passage 70 feet or more below the surface of the streets.

The Brooklyn officials desire to show the mayor the many places in their home borough where large sums of money are needed to begin or carry forward improvements already under way. One of these improvements is the Bayridge sewer. This sewer is one of the largest ever built and when it is completed it will drain a territory covering the greater part of that section of Kings county south of Prospect park.

Club Women Nominees.

Los Angeles, May 7.—The surprise of the Club Women's convention was the report of the nomination committee as follows: President, Mrs. Demies T. S. Denison of New York; first vice president, Mrs. Robert J. Burdette of California; second vice president, Mrs. Emma Fox of Michigan; recording secretary, Mrs. W. T. Coad of South Dakota. The nominating committee of 40 women who were sworn to greater secrecy than at any previous biennial, tried to give out the impression that the report published was slightly wrong, but the information, which came from three sources, is absolutely reliable, as far as it goes. The disappointment of the Decker forces was marked.

To Seize Goods

Chicago, May 7.—United States District Attorney S. H. Bethea returned to Chicago after his conference with Attorney General Knox relative to the investigation of the so-called beef trust. It was announced that the bill for injunction against the big packers is being printed at Washington and that it will probably be filed here Friday. It has been ascertained that the bill will ask not only for a dissolution of contracts entered into by and between packers, but that goods in transit be seized if it can be shown that contracts exist whereby railroads are allowing packers illegal rebates.

A Poor Pilot.

Cienfuegos, Cuba, May 7.—The steamer Julia, which has just arrived with President-elect Palma, ran ashore in the channel. Two public bath houses and several houses were demolished and the residents of the little summer resort nearby were greatly alarmed. Castillo, the pilot who was responsible for the accident, is the same man who piloted the Spanish warship Oquendo when she sailed out of Santiago harbor for battle with the American fleet. This coincidence has evoked considerable comment and the pilot has been censured severely.

New G. A. R. Commander.

Lancaster, O., May 7.—Walton Weber of Columbus was elected department commander of the G. A. R. on the first ballot. There were 524 votes cast as follows: Weber 266, Minum 188; Moulton 35, Hunt 35. Captain J. M. Roberts of Lancaster was elected senior vice commander and M. B. Radcliff of Pickaway county was elected delegate to the national encampment at Washington. Governor Nash was warmly greeted.

San Francisco, May 7.—The Southern Pacific railway has decided to take under its own management all the eating houses and lunch places on its entire railway system of more than 9,000 miles in California, Oregon, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas and Louisiana, and to assume direct supervision of the restaurants on the San Francisco trans-bay ferries between this city and Oakland and this city and Alameda.

SURRENDER DETAILED

Part American Minister Played in Capitulation of San Domingo.

HE RESTRAINS GENERAL VASQUEZ.

Minister Powell and Other Diplomats Acted Promptly When the Revolutionary Forces Were Approaching the City.

Montechristi, San Domingo, May 7.—The Dominican capital capitulated last Friday, to the revolutionary forces commanded by General Horacio Vasquez, the vice president of the republic. President Jimenez sought refuge in the French consulate and many government officers obtained shelter in the French and United States legations.

The revolutionary troops entered the capital quietly. There was not enthusiasm shown by the population here at the entry of the victorious army. The approach of the revolutionists to the capital was announced after two days heavy fighting between the government troops and the forces of General Vasquez, during which many were killed or wounded on both sides.

When it became known here that General Vasquez threatened to attack San Domingo, the United States minister, William F. Powell, as dean of the diplomatic corps, requested the Dominican government to inform him regarding the arrangements made to protect the lives and property of foreigners here, adding that in case no precautions were taken he considered it his duty to take such measures to provide for their safety as the situation demanded. The nature of the reply of the government was not made public.

General Alejandro Wosgil was appointed minister of war at about that time. Intense excitement prevailed here among the population and in government circles when the news of the approach of the revolutionary army became generally known.

When the revolutionists were sighted, Minister Powell called a meeting of the diplomats and consular bodies at the United States legation for the purpose of deciding upon the best means of protecting life and property and to prevent injury to non-combatants in case of an assault being made on San Domingo, with the result that a delegation composed of the United States minister, the French minister, M. De Joux; the Spanish consul, Dr. Perera Blesa; the German consul, Herr Von Krosigk; the Italian consul, Signor Cambiasso, and the British consul, Mr. Gosling, was appointed to wait upon General Vasquez and inform him that no attack could be made on the capital under the rules of war until due notice had been given to the diplomatic and consular corps here.

During the evening, however, General Vasquez informed the government that he was shipping munitions of war on a gunboat to San Domingo and that he had sent troops to the river Osama to take possession of the port and prevent steamers from leaving San Domingo.

Mr. Powell was advised of these movements and he dispatched another messenger to General Vasquez demanding that his troops retire according to the agreement that he would suspend all hostilities. The revolutionists, however, already had possession of the city and the diplomatic and the consular general when it met Vasquez the next day, May 1, could only offer its good offices with the view of inducing General Vasquez to send a committee to San Domingo to arrange with the government the terms for the formal surrender of the capital. The general agreed to this.

Later the same day, however, the Haytian minister, L. Borno, and the Spanish minister communicated to the revolutionary commander, General Vasquez, a message from President Jimenez consenting to the drawing up of a treaty of capitulation which was to provide a full guarantee for the safety of the officials, employees and defenders of the government as well as for the security of personal property. The president and the ministers, it was further agreed, were not to leave the country before the submission of all the authorities of the different districts of Santo Domingo had been received and all political prisoners were to be liberated.

The revolutionary army entered San Domingo at 11 a. m. May 2, and took possession of the government buildings. The form of the new government of Santo Domingo has not been decided upon.

Revolt in China.

Peking, May 7.—Bishop Favier, the French vicar apostolic in China, has received information to the effect that 10,000 armed rebels with several cannons are participating in the revolt at Chang Ting Fu, Chi-Li province. The leader of the uprising is a military mandarin, who killed his family before raising the flag of revolt so as to prevent their punishment in the event of his failure.

NO CONCESSIONS EXPECTED.

Situation in the Anthracite Coal Region Is Still Unsettled.

Scranton, Pa., May 7.—The executive board of the United Mine Workers of America for the three districts comprising the anthracite coal region met here to consider the report of the special committee which had been in conference with the National Civic Federation and the presidents of the coal railroads. The meetings are to be secret and news of the proceedings of the board will be given out through President Mitchell, who is the presiding officer. Thirty-four representatives of the Mine Workers are present and they will decide whether the men are to remain at work or go on strike for increased pay, a shorter day's work and recognition of their union.

President Mitchell, before entering Carpenter hall to attend the meeting, stated that he had received no word of reported concessions on the part of the operators. The situation, he said, was exactly as it was; that he had not received concessions and did not expect that any would be voluntarily forthcoming. His answer to a question asked clearly showed that no advances or concessions were expected from the operators.

Emperor Joseph's Reply.

Budapest, Hungary, May 7.—"As in the past, so in the future, the constant endeavor of my government will be directed to fostering close relations with our allies as well as feelings of confidence with all other powers, that contribute to the maintenance and consolidation of European peace." This was the most interesting passage from a general international viewpoint in the reply of Emperor Francis Joseph to the address of the delegations of Austria-Hungary, at the reception held in the castle at Buda. The address of the delegation alluded to continuous preservation of peace and the increased prestige of the dual monarchy in the councils of Europe as largely due to the veneration in which the emperor-king is held by all and promised full consideration of the increased demands for the army.

Will Impugn the Speaker.

London, May 7.—The Irish members will bring forward in the house a motion censuring the speaker for his ruling on the occasion when Mr. Dillon was suspended for calling Mr. Chamberlain "A damned liar." It will be remembered that Mr. Dillon interrupted to assert that General Vilonal, the leader of the Boer national scouts was a traitor, the colonial secretary retorted "The honorable member is a good judge of traitors," and thereupon Mr. Dillon asked the speaker whether the words were parliamentary and the speaker replied that Mr. Dillon had brought the retort upon himself by calling men serving under the British flag traitors. It is this ruling which the Nationalists intended to impugn. They contend that Mr. Chamberlain should have been required to withdraw his remark.

A Medical Invention.

Chicago, May 7.—At the Flower hospital a second experiment has been made with actinolite, the electrical apparatus through which the violet colored light which has been found to be germicidal, is thrown upon the diseased parts of the body. The patient was the same one used in the first trial of the ray. Frederick M. Campbell, 14 years old, a great favorite as a messenger in the Stock Exchange. So fond are the brokers of the boy that they have just endowed a bed in perpetuity in his name. He is the special protege of Anson R. Flower, the president of the hospital, who for a year has defrayed the expenses of the boy's care in a private room. The boy's case is a desperate one. He has tuberculosis of the hip in a very advanced stage.

Copeland Murder Trial.

Green River, Wyo., May 7.—Ned C. Copeland was put on trial for the murder of A. C. Rodgers, a traveling man for Swift & Co., with headquarters at St. Joseph, Mo., on a train near this city several months ago. Copeland was at one time a teller of the Nebraska national bank at Omaha, and with his disappearance from that city $10,000 of the bank's money was found missing. The bond company was searching for Copeland at the time of the shooting. Copeland's attorneys will make a plea of insanity. At the time of the shooting Copeland claimed Rodgers had hounded him from San Francisco, and had a strange influence over him that Copeland could not shake off.

THE INSIDE WORKINGS

Of the Packers at St. Louis Described by Witnesses on the Stand.

REBATES GIVEN TO RETAILERS.

Testimony Before the Officials Who Are Investigating the Beef Trust Shows Fixed Prices Extorted at St. Louis.

Jefferson City, May 7.—The existence in St. Louis of uniform and fixed meat prices and the secret rebate in addition to the C. O. D. list was shown by testimony taken at the session of the beef trust inquiry. Attorney General Crow said that the objections raised by the packers' attorneys at a former session, does not pertain to the validity of the anti-trust law, but only to the law authorizing the inquiry. The two statutes the separate.

"The anti-trust law has been tested twice in the supreme court and is unassailable," said he.

Maurice Prendville, a St. Louis Union market dealer, was the first witness. In answer to questions by the attorney general, Prendville testified that Armour, Swift, Nelson Morris and Cudahy had a fixed agreement regarding prices.

"The packers buy cattle on successive days," said he, "so that each can buy at his own price. There is very little independent buying in the East St. Louis stockyards. The big packers keep others out by telling the cattlemen that if they sell any cattle to the independent buyers, they must sell all to them."

"A better grade of cattle is sent east than that sold in St. Louis. The ordinary retail butchers cannot get high class beef. The best beef is sold to butchers at 11 cents on the carcass."

"Did you ever get a rebate?" was asked of Prendville.

"Four or five months ago I got rebates on pork from Nelson Morris. At one time the cooler managers told me that they had an agreement not to sell at less than $6 per 100. They would evade the agreement by selling some cents lower."

"Is there an arbitrator in St. Louis?" asked Attorney General Crow.

"The cooler managers meet every Wednesday afternoon and form C. O. D. list, and on Saturday they hold another meeting. I do not know who fixes the prices for them, but they are fixed the last of each week for the week following."

"When a man does not sell his cattle in East St. Louis," continued the witness, "and ships them elsewhere, the packers send a dispatch ahead of him, instructing the buyers to offer only so much. Meat this year is much inferior to that sold last year. The number of cattle sold and killed in East St. Louis this season has been unusually large. Most of the meat has been placed in storage."

William Tamme of St. Louis, formerly city salesman for Swift, testified to a uniform price at which salesmen of all companies were instructed to sell. Attorney Ernst C. Dodge has charge of the C. O. D. list, which is made up every week, the witness declared.

No Record of Ferris Girl's Death.

Delaware, O., May 7.—The investigation of the management of the Girls' Industrial home, ordered by Governor Nash is progressing. A number of witnesses have been examined in regard to the mysterious death of Nora Ferris in a straight jacket on Sept. 15, 1900. A. W. Stiles, superintendent, and others under him made verbal reports about the death, but there seems to be an absence of records in regard to the matter. J. C. Beatty, president of the trustees, admitted no investigation was made at the time of the girl's death. The Ferris girl was sent from Jackson county.

Chaffee Goes.

Manilla, May 7.—General Chaffee sailed on the transport Ingalls for the Lanao, district of the island of Mindanao. General Davis telegraphed that he thought the presence of the military governor of the Philippines would have a favorable effect on the prominent Moros, and General Chaffee immediately replied by going to Mindanao. He has ordered General Davis to arrange a conference with the prominent surviving sultans and dattos.

New Steamship Line.

San Francisco, May 7.—Plans are being quietly pressed in the east for the creation of a new trans-Pacific steamship line between San Francisco and Hongkong. It is intended to have a number of freight and passenger carrying steamers running in conjunction with the proposed Canton-Hankow railroad that is being built in China by the Brice syndicate.

The Catholic Church sustained a great loss this week in the death of Archbishop Corrigan. He was one of that church's ablest and most eloquent divines. His funeral will take place Friday morning in New York. Until that time his body will lie in state in St. Patrick's Cathedral, that city.

CONGRESSMAN KEHOE.

The formal announcement of Hon. James N. Kehoe as a candidate for reelection to Congress from the Ninth district appears in to-day's issue of the BULLETIN. Mr. Kehoe is serving his first term, and the splendid record he has already made for himself ought to insure him a renomination by acclamation. We believe the Democrats of the Ninth will be glad of the opportunity to thus honor him. He is an indefatigable worker, and has demonstrated his ability to the satisfaction of all, his work in Congress, all things considered, ranking with that of the best of the members of the House. No one else has been mentioned in connection with the race, and the indications point to his unanimous nomination on June 18th.

GOVERNOR DAVIS, of Arkansas, has adopted a novel method of meeting the unjust criticism heaped by some people of the North upon the people of the South for the latter's alleged mistreatment of the negro. The Governor this week pardoned Thompson, a negro, on condition that Thompson go to Massachusetts within the next thirty days with the intention of becoming a citizen of that State. Thompson was convicted of assault with intent to kill and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. The Governor makes the following indorsement on the application for pardon: Having just returned from the North, and having heard many expressions of sympathy by the citizens of Massachusetts for what they were pleased to call the poor oppressed negro of the South, and desiring that they shall have an opportunity to reform a certain portion of the negro population of our State:

Therefore, I, Jefferson Davis, Governor of the State of Arkansas, by virtue of the Constitution and authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of Arkansas, do grant unto Andrew Thompson, a negro, a full and free pardon on condition that he becomes, within the next thirty days, a citizen of Massachusetts.

The people of Massachusetts may learn after a while that the negro who behaves himself and tries to live right is treated just as well in the South as anywhere else, as far as his legal rights are concerned.

The Reeves Case.

[Fleming Gazette.]

During the past week a petition has been in circulation and receiving signatures in Flemingsburg concerning the case of Rev. John Reeves, formerly a minister of the M. E. Church, South, who was at one time stationed here and was later deposed from the church ministry by the State Conference, on charges preferred by several prominent citizens of Flemingsburg and Fleming County. It is understood that Mr. Reeves is about to appeal his case to the General Conference which meets at Dallas, Texas, May 7th, and the petition is in the nature of an indorsement of the character and good standing of the gentlemen who preferred the charges against Rev. Reeves.

PITHY POINTS.

It isn't the doctrine of election that some people so much object to, as it is the matter of election.

It hasn't been learned that W. S. Taylor is any nearer a return to Kentucky than he was before the Berry Howard vindication.

Some men who are the loudest in response of "amen" to a prayer, are the slowest in response to a call of dues from the palmer or merchant.

Grover Cleveland may possibly allow the Democratic party to return, provided it will acknowledge its mistake and humbly crave his pardon.

Taylor may reason that the vindication of Berry Howard was only a trap laid to catch him, and will, therefore, proceed to anchor his carcass that much more firmly upon Indiana soil.

Christian people who are able to attend church and neglect to do so are dishonoring the Sabbath as much as though they attended the theatre or any place of recreation, and are surely a stumbling block in the way of the unconverted among whom they may be sojourning.

Potato bugs are said to be more plentiful this season than last.

IMPURE FOOD.

Brick Dust, Peanut and Coconut Shells and Other Trash Used to Adulterate Certain Articles.

[Lexington Herald.]

The public generally has long wondered at the cause of the weakness often found in black peppers. The report of the Experiment Station just issued states that the cause of this is the large amount of brick dust and other trash mixed with the pepper.

The annual report of the Experiment Station to the Governor was issued this week. The report in chief is made by Mr. Robert M. Allen, pure food inspector of Kentucky. The report contains all the indictments brought for violation of the pure food laws, and a general description of the methods used in adulterating foods. The following report is made on black pepper:

All of the specimens of ground black pepper examined under the microscope by Prof. Garman were reported to contain some foreign material.

Ground spices and pepper are nearly always adulterated with some inert substance, which is used to increase the bulk of the article. Peanut shells, coconut shells, brick dust, flour, ground corn, cracker meal and other similar substances are authoritatively mentioned among the list of refuse from which these fillers are made. There are factories which do nothing else but grind and color these fillers for the trade, and most of the pepper and spice houses have a regular system and plan for such adulterations. A leading example of the system was noted during an inspection tour. The proprietor of a spice and pepper grinding establishment pointed out on the third floor of his factory two long rows of barrels. One row had in each barrel a variety of pepper or spice ground; the other had its barrels filled with a tasteless material, the color and fineness of the barrel opposite. From this floor the boxes were packed for consignment, and the proprietor stated that when a cheap pepper or spice was ordered, the order was mixed with its respective filler to suit the price. The retailer generally knows of this adulteration, but no instance has been noted where the consumer is made aware of it.

Such adulterations weaken the condiment, and instead of causing a quicker flow of the digestive juices, an extra burden of trash is put into the stomach.

Pure pepper is always cheaper than the adulterated article would be if the trash was separated from it.

Paris, May 7.—Ambassador Porter presided at the final meeting of the Paris committee of the McKinley memorial held at the United States embassy. Judge Leicester Holmes read the report, showing that $11,800 had been collected from 500 contributors. General T. F. Winslow proposed a vote of thanks to General Porter and Consul General Cowdy, which was passed unanimously. Thanks also were voted the artists and authors who participated in the fund matinee and to Frank Gardner for generously defraying all the expenses of the performance, enabling the total receipts of $3,600 to be added to the fund.

That because we make a specialty of selling the very finest ready-to-wear clothing that is produced by the best manufacturers in the world, that we overlook the needs of those of modest means or economical views on the subject of dress.

Our Young Men's and Men's Suits that range from $6 to $12, you will find the best values you ever looked at. The same attention in make, fit and trimming is accorded to these priced suits as to the high class, BUT you know that not a garment leaves our house that is not guaranteed to give satisfaction.

The weather suggests Flannel, Serge and Crash Suits. Let us show you what we have in hot weather clothing. Soft Shirts are now in order. No line like ours west of the Allegheny Mountains. But why enumerate?

Ours is the store which dresses you from the foot up to the head, in a manner satisfactory to US and when WE are satisfied YOU will be too. There is a rule in our house that is NEVER violated and that is, that no garment goes out of the store that is of doubtful fit. That this rule is appreciated is evidenced by the fact that since the weather turned seasonable we were hard put to wait on the crowds that flock to our two stores.

Selling Shoes with the KEPT promise to make good any deficiency in the wear, we find a great magnet in our Shoe business. Here you run no risk to buy Shoes if you want good ones.

PROP'S OF BEE HIVE.

CAPTAIN JAMES WHIPPS.

A Veteran Retired Steamboatman Passed Away at an Early Hour This Morning.

The venerable Captain James Whipps died at 3 o'clock this morning at the home of his cousin, Mr. S. M. Worthington, of Fern Leaf, of general debility, resulting more from old age than from any particular disease.

Captain Whipps was in the eighty-eighth year of his age, having been born Sept. 10, 1814. In his younger days he was probably one of the best known steamboatmen on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, having commanded a number of packets in his time. His closing years were spent with relatives in this county. He was never married.

The funeral will take place at 2 p. m. Friday at Minerva Christian Church, Elder W. W. Hall officiating. Burial at Minerva.

Capt. Whipps commanded the steamer Freestone in the Maysville-Cincinnati trade during the war.

Secretly Wedded.

Cincinnati Times-Star: "The news of the marriage of Mr. Frank Dinger and Miss Emma Flickinger, (of Newport), which took place on April 20, was made public by the bride Monday evening, Rev. Dr. Shafer, pastor of St. Paul's German Lutheran Church, performing the ceremony."

The groom is a son of Mr. Henry Dinger formerly of this city.

K. of St. J. Cadets.

Drill meeting to-night at 7:30. All are requested to be present.

Mr. Burns Trigg, it is said, will move to Portsmouth shortly.

The funeral of the late R. A. Toup took place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Elder Moes officiating, assisted by Elder W. W. Hall. The remains were then borne to their last resting place in the Maysville Cemetery, and interred with the honors of Oddfellowship.

Five buildings are owned, valued at $120,000, and there are ten gymnasiums.

The Commonwealth has entered suit against former Sheriff Henry Broughton, of Bell County, for $4,600, alleged to be due in the settlement of his accounts. Broughton last fall gave to Auditor Coulter his check on the bank of Pineville for the amount. Auditor Coulter, in turn, gave it to Treasurer Hager, who deposited it in bank for collection. It was lost in transmission through the mails, and the Postoffice Department has failed to locate it.

After all it appears that there isn't much difference in the seasons now and those of former years. It is said to be a matter of record in the Forman family, of this county, that Mr. Ezekiel Forman, who imported the first Merino sheep here and raised them for their wool, which was finer than that of other sheep, sheared his flock one season about the middle of May of the year 1825, and that three thousand perished of the cold, a sudden change in one night, although he sheltered as many as he could in barns, stables and other out houses.

W. A. Gaines, one of the most prominent colored politicians of Kentucky, has been removed as special agent in the Internal Revenue service, according to the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, and Albert S. White, a leading colored lawyer of Louisville, has been appointed to the same kind of a position. The changes were made, it is said, some weeks ago, but have just come to public notice. Much surprise was occasioned in Covington and Newport when it became known that Gaines had actually been retired, though rumors to that effect have been going the rounds for several days.

There is an ordinance prohibiting riding bicycles on sidewalks and the city authorities should see that it is enforced. This ordinance is violated on Forest avenue almost daily. Wednesday afternoon Master John Robert Marsh was run down and narrowly escaped serious injury, his face being badly bruised.

There are some women who seem to be perennially youthful. The grown daughters are companions as well as children, and the color in the mother's cheeks, and brightness in her eyes, the roundness of her form, all speak of abounding health. What is her secret? She is at the middle age of life when so many women are worn, wasted and faded, and yet time has only ripened her charms. The secret of this matronly health and beauty may be told in the brief phrase, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The general health of woman is so intimately related to the local health of the delicate womanly organs, that when they are diseased, the whole body must suffer. "Favorite Prescription" dries the debilitating drains, heals ulceration and inflammation, cures female weakness and imparts to the delicate female organs natural vigor and vitality. Women who have lost their health and their beauty have been made "robust and rosy checked" by the use of this marvelous medicine.

The last grand jury at Flemingsburg returned fifteen indictments.
